| | Sheila Walsh introduced Randy Tabor who revealed that he began drinking alcohol by the time he was in pre-school. Encouraged by his father who thought drinking as a child was acceptable, Randy was a full-fledged alcoholic by the time he graduated from high school. His drinking increased while he was in the military and he began to abuse drugs, also. Thinking that because he was married and held down a good job he could not possibly be an alcoholic, Randy did not see the need to change. Coming to grips with his alcoholism came only after he dedicated his life to Jesus Christ. Randy encouraged viewers who abuse alcohol and drugs to seek help. | | | | | |

| Cost of Living/ Inflation (con't) | Pastor Charles Schmitz, Founder -Headmaster of Christian Liberty Academy. Pastor Schmitz explains in detail a very cost effective way to start and operate a private school. Most parents especially Christians would love to sent their child to a private school, but with the cost of living these days and the high price you must pay for more personalized education, most parents cannot afford to put their child (or children) in a private school. Schmitz shows us how his school is able to cut costs and explains to us that at the Christian Liberty Academy they charge a child only $60.00 per month to attend that's quite a difference compared to what you pay at most any other private school in South Florida. | | | | |

Panelists: Dr. 'Lois DeLevoe, President of "On This Rock Shelter" in Ft. Lauderdale; Professor Andrew Cherry of Barry University, Biscayne Park; Greg Brown, a provider of food and other help to the homeless in Ft. Lauderdale. A roll-in footage shows some of South Florida's poverty stricken homeless. Many of them disqualify of welfare assistance or medical assistance since they have no permanent home address. Their sporadic employment prevents a steady income. The poverty stricken homeless are not just a bunch of derelicts as some may think. Often many are high school graduates, some college graduates, but for various reasons are out of work. Few have come out of jail. Panelists hope that local churches and various companies provide some facilities to alleviate the suffering. | | | 10-23-89 12:30pm | 28:45 |

Bennet Perry, Director of Credit Counselor Corpt, says the worst psychological problem for credit card abusers is being badgered by collectors. Sheila Walsh reports on a study stating that there are 22 million adult alcoholics and 10 million children of alcoholics. There are a plethora of problems resulting such as neglect, abuse, and violence, which then translates into fear, depression, hate, and withdrawal from society and many other forms such as illness and resorting to alcohol and drug abuse. Psychiatrist Mark Schneiber says that ACOA react often in excessive behavior such as gambling, over-working, over-eating, sexual promiscuity, violence, and abuse in marriage. Such persons seem to learn four primary rules: a) rigidity, b)denial, c) isolation, and d)silence because of shame. Some resort to suicide. | N | PA/O | 02/06/89 3:00pm | 59:30 |

Dorris was raised in an orphanage and knows first-hand the sort of impoverished conditions orphans are forced to endure, especially in an economically unstable country such as Haiti where poverty is the rule, more than the exception, she shares. They mention the tremendous financial costs involved in providing educational supplies for the schools, and supplying the food and clothing for the children in the orphanage. Many of the school kids cannot afford their meals, says Joel. He says that many take granted what they have. But for these impoverished kids, it is very hard to study on an empty stomach, Dorris says from her own experience. Both are grateful to TBN for providing financial support to run their orphanage. Jim McClellan interviews Michael McCaffrey, ex-criminal, now a Christian and an advisor for the retail community against fraud and shoplifting. The crimes he is familiar with are fraud, armed robbery and shoplifting. Hundreds of thousands of dollars of merchandise is stolen annually. One contributing factor to the high incidence of such crime is that people don't believe they will be victimized. He gives advice in using credit cards, in giving out personal information, in leaving valuables in accessible areas and the need to lock windows, doors, and cars at all times.

In these two programs, Carlton Pearson moderates a panel discussion on prison reform, dealing with the criminal and preventing recidivism. Panelists; Broward County Sherriff Nick Navarro; Lisa Barnes of Chuck Colson's Prison Fellowship; David Roberts, South Florida Area Director of Prison Fellowship Ministries. They discuss one of their biggest challenges, that of being able to keep the prisoner from returning to prison because of his addiction to crack cocaine. Drugs make the streets unsafe. Pearson points out that it is more expensive to house one prisoner for a year than to put them through one year of college. They mention some cooperative programs with the community are showing some success.
